

GETTING TO US

London Underground stations

The nearest London Underground stations are Embankment and Temple on the Central and District line and Charing Cross (exit 1) on the Bakerloo and Northern Line. Walking distance from all three Underground stations is approximately 10 minutes. For further information visit tfl.gov.uk

London's mainline stations at Waterloo, Victoria and Charing Cross are 10 minutes away by Underground. For further information visit nationalrail.co.uk

River boats

The Embankment Pier is the main western departure point for the MBNA Thames Clippers route RB1 commuter service. All commuter services go west (upriver) to London Eye Pier before turning and continuing east (downriver) to the North Greenwich Pier for The O2.

The pier is operated by London River Services. Further information is available at thamesclippers.com

Taxis

Taxis can be easily picked up from the Strand and along the Embankment. They can stop right outside the venue opposite the front door.

Most licensed London black cabs are wheelchair accessible by ramp and include accessibility aids.
